Iraqi National Guard and Police Service

- ï The Iraqi National Guard (ING) and Iraqi Police Service conducted a number of successful operations last week including the discovery of large insurgent weapons caches and a sophisticated terrorist safe house.

Governance - Developments

National Conference:

- i The IIG, at the request of the United Nations, postponed for two weeks the National Conference in an effort to secure broader representation from varying Iraqi political groups.

International Cooperation:

- i NATO announced an agreement on establishing a Training Implementation Mission in Iraq. The mission will be working closely with the Iraqi authorities to help them develop their security structures, in particular in the Ministry of Defense and military headquarters. NATO will also begin training selected Iraqi headquarters personnel inside Iraq and help identify personnel for training outside Iraq.
- i Secretary of State Colin Powell and Saudi leaders discussed the Saudi proposal for a contribution of Islamic troops to Iraq stabilization efforts.
- i Prime Minister Allawi concluded his visit with leaders of several Arab countries this week. Areas of discussions included security, cooperation and assistance.

Governance - Developments (Cont)

Capacity Building:

- ï The State Department is promoting capacity building and democracy through a US-based program for Iraqis.
 - Civil Society and Civic Education (July 24-August 14): Exploring how civic education provides the the underpinnings for successful participation in a democratic form of government by developing an informed, effective and responsible citizenry. Participants include mayors, governors and civil society leaders.
- ï USAID continues capacity building activities for local government:
 - Management training seminars for local government officials are improving the delivery of essential services.
- ï USAID continues Democracy Dialogue Activities (DDA) across Iraq
 - ñ Promotes civic participation and increases Iraqis' understanding of democratic principles and the political process.

Polling Data:

- ï Latest USG poll (mid July) indicates that the IIG is still popular with the Iraqi people, that security is the number one priority, and that the IIG's actions get more positive than negative remarks.

Essential Services - Water and Sanitation

- ï Rehabilitation of a water treatment plant in a poor area of Baghdad governorate is complete.
 - ñ Nearly 1 million residents are now benefiting from the potable water.
 - ñ Before rehabilitation, the plant was operating at 55-60% of capacity of its 3000 m³/day, but now operates at full capacity.
- ï Japan is funding an $11 million UN project to help restore the marshlands of southern Iraq, which were deliberately drained by Saddam Hussein.
